We provide technology solutions for the way you work

Engage and collaborate anywhere and anytime

ODP Business Solutions is an industry leader that delivers scalable and adaptive communication platforms, so your business can stay on top of digital workplace trends.

Our technology solutions give employees tools to connect and work together — and put you on a path to increased productivity, cost savings, a more mobile and agile workforce, and increased flexibility in today's complex marketplace.

Did you know?

An annual survey by FlexJobs found that 65% of respondents are more productive in their home offices than at a traditional workplace. Fewer distractions and interruptions and less stress from no commute, minimal office politics, and a personalized, quiet environment are all contributors to a more productive remote worker.
